Berlin, 9 September (AP) -- Large shipments of weapons and ammunition have arrived from the USSR for the East German People's Police, it was reported in the Berlin newspaper Berliner Stadtblatt today. According to the newspaper, the USSR delivered 10,000 automatic weapons with ammunition, a large number of antitank guns, and 15,000 shells. The shipments reportedly have come primarily by way of the East German ports of Stettin and Wismar. The arms are intended for the Bereitschaften groups, which comprise elite units in the People's Police, Berliner Stadtblatt reported.
